DAILY SPECIAL is a dimensional color font that simulates the small plastic letters used on felt letterboards. It recalls the prefabricated letterforms you might see used on daily specials board in a diner, or the coffee menu at a café, or the directory of an office building. It was developed for Letterfolk, a producer of elegant letterboards for home decor, and based on their house style. Its interior edges are crisper and more “graphic” than what you would typically see from a 3D bevel effect, taking what is otherwise a fairly workaday style and making it pop.

Available formats:

Desktop OpenType CFF (OTF)
Web WOFF, WOFF2
App/E-book OpenType TrueType (TTF)

Designer: David Jonathan Ross

DJR draws letters of all shapes and sizes for custom and retail typeface designs. A native of Los Angeles, he began drawing typefaces at Hampshire College and joined The Font Bureau in 2007 where he honed his bézier-wrangling skills. Now he publishes visually imaginative and technically advanced designs at his own foundry, including Fit, Manicotti, Input, Gimlet, and Bungee. You’ll find him in Western Massachusetts.

Many thanks to Johnny and Joanna from Letterfolk...this font wouldn’t exist without them!
