

Text on the video:

How are the world's wealthiest entrepreneurs thinking about the future?

Optimistic

Globally connected

Unprepared?

Over 90% feel positive about their business

"There's a significant opportunity right now"

81% think global networks are integral to doing successful business

With 55% also considering a personal move abroad in the near future

78% of entrepreneurs think it is important to keep the business in the family and preserve a legacy

But over half don't have a succession plan in place

Almost 4 in 5 completely trust the next generation in leading the family business

82% expect the next generation to have the ability to manage family wealth

Explore a unique look into the world of an entrepreneur and their focus for the future

The Global Entrepreneurial Wealth Report 2024

10 markets

1800 individuals surveyed

A mixture of business founders and those who have taken the lead of the family business

Operating domestically and internationally

Expert views across insights

Discover more

Privatebanking.hsbc.com

HSBC Opening up a world of opportunity