

Analyze Argument and Rhetorical Devices

Across

3. supportive statements of logic

7. arguing against that viewpoint

8. a review of the main point, stated in a memorable way

9. the writer's position

10. ethos, pathos, logos

11. a change in mood or tone, often signaled by words like but or however

13. the use of similar grammatical constructions to express ideas that are related or equal in importance

14. acknowledging merit in the other viewpoint

15. a claim made to rebut a previous claim

Down

1. the art or study of using language effectively and persuasively

2. a technique writers use to enhance their arguments and communicate more effectively

4. a statement based on an error in reasoning

5. contrasting ideas are presented via parallel language

6. makes claims to persuade an audience

12. proof that the reasons are valid