

Argument Vocabulary: See Collections pgs. 189, 197, 209

Across

- 3. What is it called when the reader follows and understands the reasoning of an argument? to...
- 5. What are declarations to explain an action or belief?
- 8. What is it called to decide whether or not an argument is convincing? to...
- 9. What is the speaker's position on a problem or issue?
- 10. What is the event that follows the cause?

11. What are reasons and evidence?

13. What are specific facts, statistics, or examples?

14. What is the event that happens first?

Down

1. What is an error in reasoning that often starts with a false assumption or mistaken beliefs?

2. What is it called to restate information in your own words? to...

4. What is a statement that addresses and disproves the opposing viewpoints?

6. What is the claim, reasons, and evidence?

7. What is it called when the speaker tries to get the audience feeling something? The speaker is appealing to the reader's...

12. What is the author's attitude about his or her subject?