

Types of Propaganda

Across

7. stand for liberty, support rights, promote freedom
9. a high profile person tries to relate to regular ordinary people
12. using positive words that everyone supports to promote your idea
15. The President of the United States stops by McDonalds for a Big Mac after jogging
17. promoting only one side of an argument or issue (positive or negative)
18. ties a person idea or cause to a largely perceived negative image
19. Don't you want to join our winning team?

Down

1. reaching a false conclusion based on two true statements
2. the use of symbols quotes or endorsements to convey a message not normally associated with them
3. My cat has a tail. My dog has a tail. Cats and dogs are the same animal
4. If we don't stop North Korea today we will all vanish in an atomic blast

5. presentation of something dreaded or terrifying to get people to do something to avoid the horror
6. Doctors endorse my diet program.
8. description of candidates in our first lesson that led the class to elect Adolph Hitler
10. celebrity endorsement of a philosophy movement or candidate they are closely related to

11. Abraham Lincoln endorses the latest Dodge Ram pickup truck
13. we're all in this together
14. information ideas or rumors deliberately spread widely to help harm a person, group, movement institution or nation
16. My opponent is a raging tree hugger